National Constitution

Name & Purpose

The name of the club which is a Not-for-Profit membership corporation chartered in the state of Michigan shall be: The Lincoln and Continental Owners Club, Incorporated. The purposes for which this club is founded are: the development, publication and interchange of technical, historical and other information for and among members and other persons who own or are interested in Lincolns/Continentials, to promote social activities and fellowship among the members and preservation of all Lincolns/Continentials. Lincolns/Continentials recognized by the club must be at least 10 years old to be eligible for judging and trophies at National Meets.

Section II Members

MEMBERSHIP

There shall be three classes of memberships.

ACTIVE MEMBERSHIP shall be open throughout the world to any person who shall be in sympathy with the interests and purposes of the club. Active members are required to pay annual dues. Active members are entitled to the full benefits of the club. They may:

1. Receive publications
2. Participate in activities
3. Attend Annual Meetings and participate in the conduct of business
4. Hold Office
5. Vote for Directors
6. Vote on proposed Amendments.

COMPLIMENTARY MEMBERSHIP may be granted to a person who has distinguished himself in the auto industry, the auto hobby or the Lincoln and Continental Owners Club. Complimentary memberships require the approval of the Membership Committee and remain in effect until revoked by the Committee. Complimentary members are not required to pay dues. They are entitled to receive publications and participate in club activities. They may not hold office.

LIFE MEMBERSHIP shall be granted to LCOC Presidents and such other persons as approved by the Membership Committee and shall enjoy all the privileges and benefits of the club but are not required to pay annual dues.

DUES

Active members are required to pay annual dues as determined by the Board of Directors. The membership year shall be from the first of the month in which the member joined and end the last day of the month prior to the start date of membership.

RENEWALS

Active Members are required to renew membership by submitting annual dues at the beginning of each Membership year.

ELIGIBILITY TO HOLD OFFICE

Active Members and Lifetime Members are entitled to hold office. An active member who holds office, National or Regional, who fails to submit dues for renewal when due, shall be deemed to have vacated the office.

EXPULSION

Any member whose conduct is judged to be not in keeping with the best interests of the Club may be expelled after due hearing pursuant to the affirmative vote of a majority of the Board of Directors. A notice of the charge shall be mailed by registered mail to the member against whom the charge has been presented and he shall be given a period of sixty days to present a defense before any action shall be taken against him.

SECTION III OFFICERS & DIRECTORS

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The Board of Directors shall be constituted of at least five and not more than fifteen elected members, and all Directors of duly constituted Regions with forty or more members of this club.

DIRECTORS AND REGIONS

The Directors of all duly constituted Regions with forty or more members of this club shall be members of the Board of Directors by virtue of their holding offices of Regional Director. Their terms on the Board of Directors shall run concurrently with their terms as Regional Directors.

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

The Active Members and Lifetime Members shall elect by plurality vote each year by blanket ballot, one third of the total elected members serving on the Board, to serve as Directors for three years. The term of office of the elected members of the Board shall be three years with terms of one third of the elected Directors expiring each year.

NOMINATION OF DIRECTORS

A nominating committee of five Active Members appointed by the President shall submit to the President, to determine eligibility, the list of nominees for Directors along with suitable ballot biographies, not later than sixty days prior to the Annual Meeting. Other nominations may also be submitted to the Secretary not less than sixty days before the Annual Meeting, in a list signed by at least fifteen Active or Life-time members.

BALLOTS

The Secretary shall prepare a blanket ballot containing the names and biographies of nominees and mail ballots to all Active Members and lifetime Members with the notice of the Annual Meeting and any proposed Amendments. Votes including those for Directors and those for Amendments, must be received by the Secretary at least twelve days before the date of the Annual Meeting or they will not be counted. The Secretary shall retain all ballots received unopened until after the deadline for receipt of ballots. He will then meet, without delay, with at least three members of LCOC. They shall open, tally and certify results. The Secretary will notify the President upon completion. The Secretary shall report and deliver all ballots to the Directors at the next Board meeting. The election shall be official and final when certified by the Board of Directors. When the Secretary is also a candidate for reelection to the Board of Directors, the President shall appoint another member of the Board of Directors to perform the Secretary's duties concerning the election.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS

The Board of Directors at the first meeting after each Annual Meeting of the members shall elect by plurality vote from their number, a President, Executive Vice President, a Vice President for Regions, a Secretary and a Treasurer, all to serve for one year.

PRESIDENT

The President shall preside at all meetings, he shall appoint all committees, he shall have power to decide all questions of equal division and have all the powers and duties usually vested in a President. The President may appoint additional Vice Presidents and an Assistant Secretary and Assistant Treasurer from among the Directors to serve at his pleasure.

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT

The Executive Vice President shall serve in the absence of the President.

VICE PRESIDENT FOR REGIONS

The Vice President for Regions shall be the primary contact between the Regions and the National Headquarters. He shall encourage and assist in the organization of new Regions, and generally serve the interests of all Regions.

SECRETARY

The Secretary shall record all minutes of the Board of Directors and the Annual Meetings. He shall perform such other duties as may be prescribed by the Board of Directors, and those that pertain to the office.

TREASURER

The Treasurer shall collect and distribute the funds of the club as may be ordered by the Board of Directors. He shall render a financial report of the club at the Annual Meeting and whenever the President or the Board requires. He shall give bond at the expense of the club if required to do so by the Board.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The club shall be governed by a Board of Directors. The Board shall have general management responsibility and control of the affairs and property of the club, and shall perform all duties not specifically designated by the constitution. At any meeting, seven Directors shall constitute a quorum. Unless otherwise provided, a majority vote shall decide.

BOARD MEETINGS

A meeting shall be held after the Annual Meeting. Election of officers shall take place after the election returns have been certified by the Nominations/Elections Committee. Additional meetings may be held at the call of the President, or upon written application to the Secretary by not less than five Directors. Written notice of all meetings shall be given to each Director at least thirty days prior to the meeting. (Passed by written ballot in the 2004 General Election)

VACANCIES

Vacancies in the elected membership of the Board that occur for any reason may be filled for the unexpired term by the Board at its next meeting.

VOTING

Absentee voting, and/or cumulative voting are prohibited. A regional director may in advance of a board meeting and by written notification directed to the president, appoint a current member of the region's board of managers as proxy to vote in his/her place at a board meeting. Any proxy so appointed must be a member in good standing of LCOC and the region.
